

YOUR Assignment?

Create a colophon that includes all the important and required information to be a complete one. Make sure to follow the format on the previous examples. We will review your colophon on Tuesday during our scheduled 30 minute breakout session. Make sure your final product also includes all the items from the colophon checklist:

- software/hardware information
- concept/theme synopsis
- paper type and weight
- press run
- location of plant
- journalism memberships
- thank you to patrons
- camera brand and model
- cover and endsheet specifications
- typefaces used
- name of printer
- visual elements
- awards received
- letter from the editors
- name of representative and customer service adviser
- business information (e.g. price of book, number of books sold, etc.)
